Seller shall inform Buyer of the existence of any such rights and upon request, supply such documents as may be required to obtain such drawback.

9. OVERAGES AND SHORTAGES. Except in the sole discretion of Buyer, overages or shortages specified in this Order will not be accepted and such overages or shortages will be held at Seller's risk. Buyer shall have no obligation to keep or preserve any overages or shortages of Goods delivered by Seller. 12. SERVICES, WARRANTY. Seller shall perform the Services, in a professional and workmanlike manner, and in conformity with the specifications set forth in the Order. Seller warrants that all reports, plans, and deliverables provided by Seller under this Order will be complete and accurate, and conform to all specifications and criteria provided by Buyer. Seller also represents and warrants that it shall provide sufficient employees or personnel to perform the Services within the applicable time frames agreed to by the parties and that such employees have sufficient skill, knowledge and training to perform the Services. Time is of the essence in the performance of this Order. Seller warrants that (a) Seller and the Services will not be in violation of any applicable law, rule or regulation and Seller will have obtained any permits or licenses required to comply with such laws and regulations, (b) the Services will not violate or in any way infringe upon the rights of third parties, including property, contractual, employment, trade secrets, proprietary information, and nondisclosure rights, or any trademark, copyright or patent rights, (c) Seller will not transfer or process personal information under this Order in a manner that necessitates Buyer to obtain consent for the transfer or processing of personal information under applicable law, and (d) Seller is not subject to and will not enter into any agreements or arrangements which preclude compliance with the provisions of this Order. These warranties are in addition to all other warranties, express, implied or statutory, which may be applicable. Any exclusion or limitation of liability clause or any other clause restricting, in any manner whatsoever, Buyer's remedies in documents of Seller, or otherwise, are hereby objected to and rejected. In the event Buyer notifies Seller of any nonconformity with respect to the warranties set forth in Section 12, Seller shall, at its own expense, promptly re-perform the Services or correct such nonconformity as necessary to bring the deliverable into conformity with the applicable specifications (such specifications are to be mutually agreed upon by the parties pursuant to the Order). Seller's curative efforts are to be completed within the applicable "Cure Period" which shall be fifteen (15) business days, unless a different period is set forth in the Order. In the event Seller is unable to cure such nonconformity within the Cure Period, then Buyer may immediately terminate the applicable Order. All warranties and other provisions of this paragraph will survive inspection or acceptance of and payment for the Services and completion, termination or cancellation of this Order.

13. GOODS, WARRANTY. Seller expressly warrants that all Goods covered by this Order will conform to the standards, specifications, drawings, samples, models, 3-D geometry or other description furnished or expressly adopted by Buyer, and will be of good material and workmanship, and free from defects, including defect in design (if Seller's design) and, if custom-designed by Seller for the application specified by Buyer, be comparable in quality to similar custom-designed goods sold for similar applications, and if the Goods are not ordered to Buyer's specifications, Seller further warrants that they will be of merchantable quality and fit and sufficient for the purpose intended. Seller further warrants that so long as Buyer is paying maintenance fees for Goods, the Goods will conform to all operational and functional capabilities and features as set forth in the specifications and will be free of defects that affect the performance of such features. Seller further warrants that all Goods, products, and materials furnished as part of the Services will comply with all applicable Federal, State, Provincial and local statutes, laws, regulations, orders, and ordinances, including, without limitation, all environmental and occupational health and safety laws and industry standards and Buyer's specifications that restrict or prohibit certain chemical compounds as specified in the John Deere Restricted Materials List. The John Deere Restricted Materials List is found at: <https://idsn.deere.com/bannedchemicals> and is incorporated herein by reference. Seller also warrants that its processes shall comply with the John Deere Quality Manual and that the Goods will comply with all current industry safety standards, including labeling requirements and adequate warnings as required. The John Deere Quality Manual is found at: <https://idsn.deere.com/qualitymanual> and is incorporated herein by reference.

14. EMISSIONS WARRANTY. If Goods contain emissions-related components, Seller shall timely provide to Buyer, for inclusion into its operator's manuals, emission-related warranty and maintenance instructions approved and/or required by governmental authorities for the Goods. Should Seller fail to do so, Buyer may include in its operator's manuals an emissions-related warranty and maintenance instructions. The emissions-related warranty provided by Seller shall be provided in accordance with applicable government laws and regulations, including but not limited to, the U.S. Clean Air Act, U.S. Environmental Protection Agency and California Air Resource Board engine exhaust emission regulations, 40 CFR §1051.120; §1054.120; §1039.120; and, 13 CCR §2425, as they may be amended. Seller shall reimburse Buyer for costs Buyer incurs in performing emissions-related warranty work on the Goods.

15. REJECTION. Goods and/or Services will be received subject to inspection and approval by Buyer after delivery. Upon inspection, Buyer may give Seller notice of rejection or revocation of acceptance notwithstanding any payment, approval, or inspection. No inspection, approval, delay or failure to inspect, or failure to discover any defect or other non-conformance, will relieve Seller of any obligations under this Order or limit, revoke or waive any right or remedy of Buyer with respect to Seller's performance hereunder. If, in Buyer's judgment, the Goods and/or Services do not conform with the requirements of this Order, Buyer will have the right to reject the Goods and/or Services and, in addition to any other rights or remedies it may have, Buyer may, in its sole discretion: (a) seek reimbursement, credit, replacement, or repair as Buyer may direct; or (b) correct, rework, and/or repair the Goods and/or Services with all costs associated therewith to be charged to and paid by Seller. All such non-conforming Goods and/or Services that are so remedied will have the same warranty as stated in Section 12 and/or 13 of this Order from the date of re-delivery.

16. DEFECTIVE GOODS. If any of the Goods fail to meet the warranties contained in Section 13 (a "Nonconformity"), Seller shall, upon notice from Buyer, promptly correct or replace those Goods at Seller's expense. Seller hereby waives any right to assert that Buyer is barred from a remedy due to any failure or delay by Buyer in providing notice under U.C.C. 2-607(3)(a). If, in Buyer's sole discretion, either ten percent or more of the Goods purchased from or through Seller are Nonconforming, or the Nonconformity otherwise results in a problem or issue that: (a) is sufficiently serious or widespread to threaten any of the following: (i) the uninterrupted customer use of the Buyer's products or equipment which incorporates the Goods; (ii) Buyer's marketing of the Buyer's products or equipment which incorporates the Goods; or (iii) Buyer's reputation; or (b) poses a previously unforeseen safety hazard; or (c) is sufficiently serious to require a report to any governmental agency, including, without limitation, the U.S. Consumer Products Safety Commission or Health Canada, and the need to make a change to Buyer's products or equipment in which the Part is used, Buyer may, in its sole discretion, take corrective action, including but not limited to, a recall, field program (such as a "fix-as-fail" program), or Product Improvement Program ("PIP"). If Buyer implements any corrective action, Seller shall promptly provide conforming replacement Goods to Buyer or Buyer's designee unless otherwise agreed by the parties in writing. Buyer shall be entitled to recover from Seller all costs and expenses incurred by Buyer in taking such corrective action, even if the Nonconformity is the fault of one or more of Seller's affiliates, subsidiaries, or any third-party seller, manufacturer or subcontractor utilized by Seller for the Goods. If the corrective action is necessary, in part because of a Nonconformity in the Good, and in part because of an act or omission by Buyer, these costs and expenses shall be allocated between Seller and Buyer pro rata according to their respective percentage of fault. The foregoing will apply even if applicable Good warranties, including those outlined in Section 13, have expired. Buyer is not required to return any Goods subject to the corrective action to Seller as a condition of reimbursement. The parties further acknowledge and agree that to the extent Buyer is required or otherwise agrees to participate in any recall of a Good or other corrective action instituted by or against the Seller, the Seller shall fully reimburse Buyer for all costs, expenses and losses associated with Buyer's participation in such recall or corrective action.

17. MANUFACTURING CHANGES. Seller shall give Buyer not less than sixty (60) days prior, written notice of any specification, design, part number or other identification changes, or any major changes in process or procedure or changes in the location of the manufacturing plant or place where Seller performs any of its obligations under this Order if any such changes may affect the Goods.

18. TERMINATION. Buyer may terminate this Order for its convenience, in whole or in part, by written or electronic notice at any time. If this Order is terminated for convenience, any claim of Seller shall be settled on the basis of reasonable costs incurred by Seller in the performance of this Order for labor and materials which are not usable by Seller. Materials for which Seller is reimbursed shall become the property of Buyer and shall be surrendered to Buyer upon termination of this Order. Seller shall safeguard and shall not destroy such materials without Buyer's consent. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the License shall survive termination of this Order.

19. DELAYS. If Seller fails or refuses to proceed with this Order, Buyer may cancel the then remaining balance of this Order unless the delay is an "excusable delay" as hereinafter defined. An "excusable delay" shall not constitute a default under this Order. The term "excusable delay" as used in this Section means any delay in performing the Services or providing the Goods which results without fault or negligence of Seller and which is due to causes beyond its control including, acts of God or of the public enemy, fires, floods, epidemics, quarantine restrictions, freight embargoes, unusually severe weather, and delays of a party's supplier due to such causes. For greater certainty, "excusable delay" does not include any strike, lock-out, labor dispute or inability to obtain labor, utilities, services or raw materials. Each party shall promptly notify the other of any such delay and the cause thereof.

20. FIRST AND THIRD PARTY INDEMNIFICATION. Seller shall, at its expense, protect, defend, hold harmless and indemnify Buyer, its subsidiaries, affiliates, authorized dealers and distributors and their officers, directors, employees, agents, successors, assigns, and customers (collectively, "Indemnitees"), from and against any and all claims, suits, allegations, judgments, actions, liabilities, losses, damages, costs and expenses, including, but not limited to, attorneys' fees and expenses (the "Loss") arising out of, resulting from, related to or associated with:

(a) any claim or allegation that Buyer or its Indemnitees use, sale, offer for sale, manufacture, or import of any deliverable created during the performance of the Services by Seller, including without limitation any applicable work of authorship, drawings, and marketing materials that infringes or misappropriates the patent, copyright, trade secret or other intellectual property right of any third party. If the use, sale, manufacture, or import of any such deliverable created during the performance of the Services or delivery of the Goods by Seller is enjoined as a result of such claim, Seller, at no expense to Buyer, shall obtain for Buyer and its Indemnitees the right to use, sell, manufacture, or import any such deliverable and extend this indemnity thereto. In no event shall Seller enter into any settlement without Buyer's prior written consent;

(b) Seller's negligence, strict liability or other claim involving the design, manufacture, material and/or workmanship of the Goods and/or Services or deliverables or the warnings or lack thereof;

(c) The willful or negligent acts or omissions on the part of Seller, of its employees, workers, subcontractors, agents, successors and assigns, including, but not limited to injury or death to any person as well as damage to any property, except as may result solely from the willful or negligent acts of Buyer;

(d) a possible data breach;

(e) Seller's breach of this Order; and/or

(f) Seller's possession, use, repair or maintenance of the Property under this Section.

21. INDEMNIFICATION PROCEDURE. Failure of Buyer to discover and/or remedy the act(s) or omission(s) in Section 20 shall not excuse Seller from this obligation. Buyer shall promptly notify Seller in writing of the Loss. Buyer shall cooperate in, but not be responsible for the investigation and defense of the action in respect of the Loss or for any costs and expenses associated therewith. Should Seller fail to assume its obligation hereunder, Buyer shall have the right, but not the obligation, to defend itself and to thereafter require Seller to reimburse and indemnify Buyer for any and all costs and expenses, including legal fees, paid by Buyer in connection therewith. Buyer shall have the right to manage any data breach response. Sections 20 and 21 shall survive termination, cancellation or expiration of this Order.

22. INSURANCE REQUIREMENTS. Seller and its subcontractors will maintain insurance coverage and will provide proof of insurance coverage as required by Buyer upon request, including, without limitation, insurance that would make Buyer whole for a defect of non-conforming Goods manufactured or supplied by any other supplier, subcontractor or other party retained or used by Seller.

For sale of Goods to Buyer, Seller agrees to include specifically Buyer and wholly-owned subsidiaries of Buyer and all corporations, limited corporations, joint ventures, partnerships, or other entities directly or indirectly controlled by Buyer or one of its wholly-owned subsidiaries as "Additional Insured" under A POLICY OR POLICIES OF PRODUCT LIABILITY INSURANCE PROVIDING $10,000,000 (United States currency) LIMITS OF LIABILITY FOR EACH OCCURRENCE AND IN THE AGGREGATE FOR INJURY, LOSS OR DAMAGE OF ANY KIND CLAIMED BY A THIRD PARTY CAUSED BY OR ARISING FROM OR ALLEGED TO HAVE BEEN CAUSED BY PARTS PROVIDED BY SELLER UNDER THIS ORDER. The amounts of insurance required in this Section may be satisfied by multiple policies which, when combined together, provide the total limits of insurance specified.

23. THIRD-PARTY BENEFICIARY/WARRANTY LIABILITY. It is expressly understood and agreed by the Seller that Buyer is an intended third-party beneficiary of any contract or agreement between Seller and any other supplier or party who provides products or services on Goods sold by Seller to Buyer. Thus, in the event Seller agrees with another supplier or other party to provide products or services on Goods, the Seller shall both advise and obtain written acknowledgement from each such supplier or other party that the Goods are being made for the benefit and use of Buyer pursuant to specifications and Buyer is the direct and intended beneficiary of any agreement between Seller and each such supplier or other party.

24. ASSIGNMENT OF CLAIMS. In the event a supplier or other party who provided product or services to Seller in connection with the Goods is responsible for defective or non-conforming Goods or Services, Seller agrees to execute an Assignment provided by Buyer through which all of Seller's rights and claims for damages against such supplier or other party are assigned to Buyer. Seller further agrees to cooperate and assist Buyer as necessary in the recovery of damages from each such supplier or other party.

25. WORKER'S COMPENSATION. Seller agrees to be responsible for all documentation, processing, and management of workers' compensation claims and related procedures for individuals assigned by Seller to perform Services for Buyer (the "Seller's Workers"). The parties agree to cooperate in maintaining compliance with applicable workers' compensation laws, regulations, decrees and governmental orders related to workers' compensation in all jurisdictions, which govern the Services and the Seller's Workers' conduct or work.

Upon request by the other party, each party agrees to provide whatever information may be in its possession regarding the Seller's Workers who may be injured in the course of performing Services for Buyer. This requirement does not apply, however, to any information or documents or information which one party is prohibited from providing to the other party because of laws or recognized legal privileges regarding confidentiality. Seller will be responsible for investigating all claims, including but not limited to fraudulent claims, and coordinating all procedures for handling workers' compensation inquiries. Buyer agrees to fully cooperate, within reason, with any such investigation. Seller agrees to be responsible for maintaining all documents relating to workers' compensation matters for the Seller's Workers, including documents and other information required by local, state, and federal governmental bodies. It is the intention of the parties that the Seller's Workers are Seller's employees, not Buyers. Seller agrees to protect, defend, hold harmless and indemnify Buyer and Buyer's officers, directors, employees, agents, successors and assigns, from and against any and all claims, suits, allegations, judgments, actions, liabilities, losses, damages, costs and expenses (including, without limitation, reasonable attorney and expert witness fees), and all other liability of any nature whatsoever: (i) arising from, or alleged to arise from, Seller's performance of, or failure to perform, Seller's responsibilities under this Section, or (ii) in any instance where the Seller's Workers' status as Seller's employee is an element required for recovery, whether under any workers' compensation law or under any other law.

Maintaining the insurance coverage required by this Order shall in no way be interpreted as relieving Seller of any responsibility under this Section. The indemnification provision in this Section shall survive termination, cancellation, or expiration of this Order.

26. ENVIRONMENTAL. Seller agrees to comply with all local, state and federal statutes, ordinances, decrees, rules and regulations governing the environment and the handling, storage, spillage, reporting, remediation, cleanup, disposal and transportation of hazardous, toxic, polluting or contaminating substances ("Environmental Laws") at all times during the entire term of this Order. Seller also agrees to obtain at Seller's expense all licenses or permits necessary for the conduct of its operations and performance of its obligations under this Order in compliance with Environmental Laws.

Seller agrees to accord Buyer access to Seller's records and procedures for the inspection and monitoring of compliance with said Environmental Laws, as such records and procedures relate to the Services, on reasonable notice. Seller agrees to report immediately to all appropriate governmental bodies and regulatory agencies any spill, leak, contamination, unauthorized release, reportable violation of any Environmental Laws or other environmental damage to property will immediately be reported to all appropriate governmental bodies and regulatory agencies. If such event is related to the Services, Seller also agrees to report the event to Buyer. If Seller receives any notice of inspection, violation, noncompliance or citation from any governmental body or regulatory agency, or any notice of a private claim, involving Environmental Laws and relating to Services, Seller agrees to notify Buyer of such notice within five (5) working days of Buyer's receipt of the notice.

Seller agrees to protect, defend, hold harmless and indemnify Buyer and Buyer's officers, directors, employees, agents, successors and assigns, from and against any and all claims, suits, allegations, judgments, actions, liabilities, losses, damages, costs and expenses (including, without limitation, reasonable attorney and expert witness fees) on account of personal injury or property damage caused by, or arising from, or alleged to have been caused by or arise from, Seller's failure to comply with Environmental Laws.

The indemnification provision in this Section shall survive termination, cancellation, or expiration of this Order.

27. SAFETY. Buyer maintains a comprehensive safety program at our factories and offices. The parties agree to work together to provide a safe work environment for Seller's Workers. Seller shall provide, at Seller's expense, standard personal safety equipment, which typically includes safety glasses and foot protection, to Seller's Workers. Seller also assures that workers will have received at a minimum OSHA-required safety education to assure a safe work experience. Seller agrees to comply with Buyer's requirements regarding safety. These include wearing personal protective equipment. If Buyer finds any of Seller's Workers violating such requirements, Buyer reserves the right to direct Seller Workers to leave the premises immediately. Seller shall provide a qualified replacement promptly in that situation. Buyer will provide Seller's Workers with access to Buyer's occupational health facilities on a first aid or emergency basis. Any additional medical treatment will be Seller's financial responsibility. It is the Seller's responsibility to maintain all safety education records and OSHA record keeping relating to Seller's Workers, notify the appropriate OSHA authorities in case of serious injury to Seller's Workers, and keep track of all injuries and/or illnesses that may occur on Buyer's property.

Buyer maintains a comprehensive database of hazardous materials that are used on Buyer's premises. Seller shall notify Buyer in advance (by providing a Material Safety Data Sheet) of each and every hazardous chemical that Seller plans to bring onto Buyer's premises. Buyer reserves the right to deny the use of any such chemicals deemed unsuitable.

If any of Seller's actions constitute an OSHA violation, Seller shall bear financial responsibility for any related OSHA citations, fines, legal and expert fees, and required follow-up activity.

In the event Seller's Workers, or his or her estate, or his or her family member(s) assert(s) any type of claim, suit, allegation, judgment, action, liability, loss, or damages for personal injury (including without limitation toxic tort and exposure to substances through skin or inhalation), arising from, or alleged to arise from, in whole or in part, the Seller's Workers' presence or job performance at a facility owned, leased, or operated by Buyer, Seller agrees to protect, defend, hold harmless and indemnify Buyer and Buyer's officers, directors, employees, agents, successors and assigns, from and against such claim, suit, allegation, judgment, action, loss or damages, and also from and against costs or expenses (including, without limitation, reasonable attorney and expert witness fees) or other liability of any nature whatsoever relating thereto.

Maintaining the insurance coverage required by this Order shall in no way be interpreted as relieving Seller of any responsibility under this Section. Seller and all individuals that Seller assigns, or subcontracts with, to perform work or Services at Buyer's facilities shall comply with Buyer's "Factory Safety Regulations" and its "Contractor Safety Policy" and all occupational health and safety and environmental legislation and regulations and all applicable industry standards.

This Section shall survive termination, cancellation, or expiration of this Order.

28. CERTIFICATION. [FOR SELLERS LOCATED IN THE U.S. ONLY] Seller hereby certifies that it will fully comply with Executive Order 11246, as amended by Executive Order 11375, Section 503 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, as amended, the Vietnam Era Veteran's Readjustment Assistance Act of 1974, as amended, Executive Order 11625, as amended, and Executive Order 13201, any privacy laws, the Fair Labor Standards Act, the Equal Pay Act, the Occupational Safety and Health Act, Americans with Disabilities Act, The Age Discrimination in Employment Act, Title VII of the Civil Rights Act, Immigration and Control Act, Family and Medical Leave Act, and provisions relating to the identification and procurement of required permits, certificates, approvals and inspections, labor and employment obligations, affirmative action, and wage and hour laws, which are hereby incorporated by reference as appropriate, and the rules and regulations issued thereunder which are incorporated by reference as appropriate. Neither party shall assign or transfer this Order or any interest therein or monies payable thereunder without the prior, written consent of the other party, and any assignment made without such consent shall be null and void, except that Buyer may assign this Order and its interest therein to any affiliated corporation or to any corporation succeeding to Buyer's business without the consent of Seller.

32. TAXES. Unless otherwise stated, the prices do not include sales, use, excise, and similar taxes applicable to the Goods or any ancillary goods, products, or materials. All such taxes and charges shall be shown separately on Seller's invoices.

33. REMEDIES. All remedies provided for herein are to be cumulative and in addition to and not in lieu of any other remedies available at law, in equity and otherwise.

34. CONFIDENTIALITY. This Order and any material transmitted herewith may contain information confidential or proprietary to Buyer, its subsidiaries or affiliates, including any personal information provided, and such information is not to be used by Seller other than the purpose for which it was transmitted to Seller. Seller shall hold such information in strictest confidence and not disclose such information to third parties without the prior, written consent of Buyer. Seller will execute a confidentiality and non-disclosure agreement as required by Buyer. Seller will take reasonable measures to protect such information from misuse and unauthorized access or disclosure, but in no event less than the measures it takes to protect its own information. Seller will promptly return or destroy such information upon conclusion of the arrangement, or earlier if requested by Buyer, Seller shall notify Buyer immediately and provide full information regarding any potential data breach.

35. BUYER'S PROPERTY. Seller hereby assigns to Buyer all right, title and interest in any items or materials (including those supplied or financed by Buyer), patents, copyrights, trade secrets, or other intellectual property rights in any improvements resulting from or arising in connection with Seller's performance of the Services or delivery of Goods under this Order. Seller shall execute the necessary agreements to perfect Buyer's title thereto. Seller hereby irrevocably waives any moral rights it has in any such copyrighted works and assigns all copyrights and patent rights in inventions to Buyer.

36. BAILMENT. Machinery, equipment, tools, jigs, dies, patterns, drawings, specifications and samples furnished to Seller by Buyer on other than a charge basis, or which are separately billed to Buyer ("Property"), shall be held by Seller as bailee.
